Dear ICJA Families,

The English Department encourages you to challenge yourselves to read new books, and these summer reading selections will be the texts that begin your work for next year, so be sure to complete your reading by the first day of school. We hope that along with these required summer reading texts, you also read newspapers, magazines, memoirs, novels and biographies to enhance your minds.

For incoming freshmen:

The Last Lecture by Randy Pausch

For incoming sophomores:

The Rent Collector by Camron Wright

For incoming juniors and seniors:

The Midnight Library by Matt Haig

For AP Language and AP Literature:

Complete your reading assignments from Mrs. Kahan and Mrs. Prince

We hope that your summer is filled with new experiences, time outdoors, and a few good books.

Sincerely,

Sheri Goldstein
English Department Chair
